(2) Reason for the revision

We are restructuring our portfolio of foreign and domestic bonds in the second half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023. Although losses on securities were already recognized in the third quarter of the fiscal year, we will continue to restructure them in the fourth quarter. Considering loss estimates at the present, we revise the full-year earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2023.

In addition, business performances excluding losses due to portfolio restructuring is generally in line with forecasts because core business profit increased year-on-year in the third quarter of the fiscal year. .

We will increase loan interests and fees and commissions according to the basic strategies of the Third Medium-Term Group Business Plan, such as “Innovating traditional banking services” “Deeping comprehensive financial services,” and “Challenges to expand business areas”. In addition, we will transform to stable profit structure for improvement of business efficiency through DX. By restructuring securities portfolio, it will be possible to aim for improvement of periodic profits/losses and steady growth from the next fiscal year onwards.

(Note)The forecasts in this document were determined based on available information at present, and therefore actual results may differ from the forecasts due to various factors in the future.
